Decade of the Rosary - 7 minutes prior to the start of Mass

Good morning. In 1982, President Reagan proclaimed April to be the first National Child Abuse Prevention Month, and that tradition continues today. Together we can ensure that all are safe from sexual abuse and provide assistance and support to survivors who are on the path to healing. You can help in these efforts by offering your prayers for healing and protection. This rosary will help you to lift up their needs in prayer, offering them to God through Mary who offers her loving protection to all her children.

“He was in such agony and he prayed so fervently that his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground.”

Many survivors of sexual abuse suffer in silence for years, wrestling alone with the agony of their memories and pain. We pray that the Church may always be a place where they can come to share their stories, be received in love and compassion, and be supported on the path to healing.

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven
Hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

Hail Mary, (10 times)
Full of Grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit
of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary,
Mother of God,
pray for us sinners now,
and at the hour of death.
Amen.

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning
is now,
and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen.

O my Jesus,
forgive us our sins,
Save us from the fires of hell,
and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of your Mercy.
Amen.

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised.”

The Father’s gift of healing is a wonderful thing, bringing new life and hope from what was pain and despair. We pray for all survivors of sexual abuse, that they may come to abundant new life in the Risen Lord.

“She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.”

Jesus, the Son of God, entered the world as a vulnerable child. He was not counted among the great and powerful, instead lying in a manger. We are called to protect all those who are vulnerable, especially children, by providing them with safe places to live and grow.

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“Then Pilate took Jesus and had him scourged.”

The experience of sexual abuse may leave scars no less profound than the scars of scourging, though they often remain unseen. We must strive to make our parish communities places where survivors can feel safe to share their burdens and to find healing and peace.

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“As [the Apostles] were looking on, [Jesus] was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.”

Jesus ascended into heaven in the presence of his Apostles, making them witnesses to the whole world. We too are called to be witnesses, helping to build a society where the vulnerable are safe from those who would steal their trust and their innocence.

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“A voice came from the heavens, saying, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’”

We are all beloved by God, precious in his sight. There is no room in Church ministry for those who would harm the vulnerable, betraying their trust and destroying their innocence. All members of the Church must do their part to make the Church and society safe for all.

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
